THE JEWS OF CUBA

A MARRIAGE OF CULTURES

FEBRUARY 18–24, 2025, DECEMBER 3–9, 2025

The Jewish history of Cuba traces back to the island's first European settler, converso Luis de Torres (Yosef ben Levy Ha-Ivri), who served as a translator for Christopher Columbus. While the majority of Cuba's Jewish population emigrated after Castro's revolution in 1959, today's small but vibrant community is eager to share its stories, culture, and foods. Together with leading scholars and guides, we'll discover and celebrate Cuban Jewish life and history and experience the magical rhythms and charming beauty of this Caribbean-island nation.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Experience special presentations with esteemed local scholars, including historian Dr. Maritza Corrales, author of The Chosen Island, and former diplomat Camilo Lopez Arigo-Garcia.
- Take unique guided tours of El Patronato (Temple Beth Shalom) and the Centro Hebreo Sefaradi (the Sephardic Hebrew Center) in Havana.
- Attend a special rehearsal of the Habana Compás Dance company and visit acclaimed Cuban artist José Rodríguez Fuster at his studio.
- Visit the Muraleando Community Art Project, Revolution Square, the National Museum of Fine Arts, and other important destinations.
- Meet local Jewish leaders and residents and share a Shabbat dinner.

IMPERIAL CITIES OF MOROCCO

CASABLANCA, MEKNES, FEZ, RABAT & MARRAKECH

OCTOBER 20–31, 2025, NOVEMBER 3–14, 2025

More than anywhere else in the Islamic world, Moroccan Jewry was embedded within the greater culture, sharing daily life, art, and knowledge in co-existing communities for millenia. Today, with hundreds of shrines, restored synagogues, the Museum of Moroccan Judaism in Casablanca, and the Fez “Mellah” (the Jewish quarter from the 15th century), the Kingdom of Morocco actively preserves and honors its Jewish past. Join our experienced scholars and guides to explore the majesty of this enchanting country, while uncovering the rich Jewish culture that once thrived here.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Tour the city of Casablanca, including the Museum of Moroccan Judaism, the only Jewish institution of its kind in the Muslim world.
- Experience UNESCO World Heritage sites, including the archeological site of Volubilis and the storied Djemaa el Fnaa Square of Marrakech.
- Explore the Mellah of Fez, founded in 1438 and once home to tens of thousands of Jews.
- Take a day trip to the lush Ourika Valley and visit the 500-year-old tomb of Rabbi Shlomo ben Hensh, still revered as a saint by both Muslims and Jews.
- Enjoy the world-renowned cuisine of Morocco, including dinner at the luxurious Dar Yacout, tucked away in the medina of Marrakesh.

THE JEWS OF POLAND YESTERDAY, TODAY & TOMORROW MAY 9–20, 2025, OCTOBER 17–28, 2025

Before World War II, Poland's three million Jews represented one of the largest, most diverse Jewish communities in the world. Today, Poland — where 1,000 years of Jewish history went up in flames over seven decades ago — is home to a fast-growing Jewish community, and Warsaw's world-class history museum and Jewish festivals attract thousands of visitors each year. Join us for a meaningful and fascinating tour with expert scholars as we learn about, experience, and share in the vibrancy, and tragic history, of Jewish life in Poland.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Enjoy private guided tours of the National Museum of Warsaw and the Polin Museum of the History of Polish Jews.
- Experience a walking tour of the district of Kazimierz, with its many synagogues, a pre-war Jewish cemetery, and the largest medieval market square in Europe.
- Visit important sites, including the Warsaw Jewish Cemetery, the Auschwitz-Birkenau State Museum and the newly expanded Auschwitz Jewish Center, a mile away.
- Discover the city of Kraków, including its historic Jewish quarter, numerous synagogues, and old Jewish cemetery.
- Attend optional Saturday morning services at the Kraków's Synagogue in Warsaw, built in 1898.
