

A Program of the Museum of Jewish Heritage

Jewish Jewels of the Baltics Lithuania, Latvia & Estonia

August 31 – September 10, 2015

Old Town Vilnius, Lithuania

Program Overview

Lithuanian Jews, also called Litvaks, were among the most influential scholars, energetic businessmen, and skilled professionals in Europe prior to WWII. In Lithuania, Jewish secular and religious institutions flourished. With more than 100 synagogues and some of the leading rabbinical schools of Europe, Vilnius was affectionately known as the Jerusalem of Lithuania. The YIVO Institute – the leading academic institution for the study of Yiddish language and literature – was founded in Vilnius, and the Gaon of Vilna was an acknowledged and world-renowned Talmudist and scholar.

In nearby Latvia and Estonia, Jews also played important roles in the economic and intellectual life of their countries. Their Jewish communities flourished – with customs and culture impacted by German, Russian, Polish, and Lithuanian influence and traditions. Over the years, such luminaries as Isaiah Berlin, Rav Kook, Mark Rothko, Louis Kahn, Abba Eban, and Amos Oz emerged from Lithuanian, Latvian, and Estonian families.

Join scholar-in-residence and expert on Lithuanian Jewry, Professor Sid Leiman. Our trip will begin in the picturesque city of Vilnius and continue through the countryside of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia. Among other places, we will visit Trakai, ancient capital of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania; the charming city of Riga, a World Heritage Site; and Tallinn, an architectural wonder. Throughout the journey travelers will enjoy good company, magnificent countryside, and Professor Leiman's fascinating lectures which will provide invaluable context and insights.

We are dedicated to making your experience rich in content and superior in comfort.

This unique travel program combines the expertise and resources of two organizations that cherish the traditions, achievements, and faith of Jewish communities – past and present – around the world. Jewish Heritage Travel and the Museum of Jewish Heritage are delighted to have the opportunity to share this rich, varied, and poignant history and culture with you on these select trips. We look forward to traveling with you.

Tentative Daily Itinerary*

Monday, August 31

Arrive in Vilnius, check in to the 5-star, deluxe Hotel Kempinski – superbly located in the City center. Rest and relax. Late afternoon: (optional) walking tour of Cathedral Square and surrounding area.

Evening: Overview by our scholar, Professor Sid Leiman, followed by an opportunity to get to know one another. Orientation and opening dinner at our hotel (included).

5-star, deluxe Hotel Kempinski.

Tuesday, September 1

City tour of Vilnius, including Old Town (UNESCO World Heritage site) with its main historical attributes: the Cathedral, Gothic Corner, and Dawn Gate – one of the most important religious, historical, and cultural monuments of the city.

Synagogue in Vilna.

Following lunch on our own, we will visit the Medieval Jewish quarter and ghetto and tour the State Jewish Museum. The hub of the city's tiny Jewish community, this small museum surveys the history of the Jewish community of Vilnius from the 15th through 20th centuries. It also displays rare photographs and copies of diaries and handwritten notes relating to the Holocaust.

Evening presentation by Professor Leiman on "Spiritual Resistance in the Vilna Ghetto: The Rabbis Daughter." Dinner on our own.

Wednesday, September 2

This morning, we will board our coach and travel to Trakai – ancient capital of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania. Here, we will tour historic Trakai Castle and visit the Karaite Ethnographic Museum- situated on a street dotted with picturesque wooden cottages. Many of these cottages were built by the Karaites, an ancient sect and offshoot of Judaism, whose descendants arrived in Trakai from the Crimea in the 14th century. Lunch in Trakai (included) before visiting Paneriai Forest (the site commemorated by a memorial to the victims of the Holocaust and where more than 100,000 victims were executed) before returning to Vilnius.

Trakai – ancient capital of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania.

Evening presentation by Professor Leiman on "The Righteous Convert (Ger Tzedek) of Vilna: Real or Imaginary?" Dinner on our own.

Thursday, September 3

Day trip to Kaunas (previously known as Kovno), second largest city in Lithuania. Tour the town square and the synagogue. Dating back to 1871, this radically designed, neo-Baroque synagogue was one of more than 35 synagogues and Jewish prayer houses in the city prior to WWII. Though few Jews remain in Kaunas, the synagogue houses a stunning Torah ark and encapsulates the rich and famous history of Jewish Kovno.

Following lunch on our own, visit Sugihara House, a small museum in the house where the Japanese consulate was located in 1939. Here, Japanese Consul Chiune Sugihara and his wife risked their careers to help save the lives of more than 6,000 Jews. Before returning to Vilnius, we will visit the “Ninth Fort” (the ninth in a series of fortifications dating back to Tsarist Russia – today a museum and memorial to victims of Fascism) before returning to Vilnius.

Evening: Free, dinner on our own.

Friday, September 4

Morning departure for Riga, with a stop en-route at the Baroque Rundale Palace for a private guided tour. One of the most outstanding monuments of Baroque and Rococo architecture in Latvia, it was built as a summer residence for Ernst Johann Biron, Duke of Courland and a favorite of the Russian Empress Anna Ioannovna. Lunch at Rundale Palace (included). Upon arrival in Riga, check in to the deluxe Grand Palace Hotel with time to rest and relax before a festive Shabbat dinner (included) at our hotel.

Saturday, September 5

Morning free to relax or attend Shabbat services at Peitav Shul, an architectural gem considered a monument of national significance. The only synagogue to be spared during the Nazi occupation, this magnificent edifice is one of a few ceremonial buildings constructed in the manner of Art Nouveau. Afternoon: (optional) Walking tour of historic Old Riga – an area designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site – with its many wooden buildings and Art Nouveau architecture.

Evening: Free, dinner on our own.

Trip Guide

Lucy Rapoport has guided and accompanied many previous Jewish heritage tours – all to great acclaim.

Born and schooled in England before moving to Italy as a young adult, Lucy is fluent in Italian, German, French, and Spanish and has been a tour manager for more than 20 years. Specializing in Europe, Lucy has accompanied previous Jewish groups to such places as Lithuania, Krakow, Prague, Berlin, Croatia, Spain, Northern and Southern Italy, and Sicily. With Lucy's attention to detail, knowledge of history, and considerable expertise in guiding groups, participants will be well served on this trip.

Sunday, September 6

Depart hotel for a visit to Riga's Jewish Community Center and Museum for a private guided tour and presentation about Riga's Jewish history by our guide (and researcher at the Museum). Following lunch on our own in Old Town, we will visit the Zanis Lipke Museum and the Rumbula Forest. Dinner on our own.

Monday, September 7

Depart Riga for Tallinn, capital of Estonia. Along the way, we will view magnificent countryside and stop in the sunny, seaside town of Pärnu for lunch (included) at Villa Ammende. Arrive in Tallinn and check in to the deluxe, boutique Hotel Telegraaf.

Evening: Presentation by Professor Leiman on "Lifeboat Ethics: A Jewish Perspective," followed by dinner on our own.

Tuesday, September 8

We will begin today with a visit to Tallinn's new Jewish Community Center and the adjoining, architecturally fascinating synagogue. Lunch (included) followed by a private guided tour of the spectacular Kumu Museum, with a tour encompassing the building's architecture and its permanent collection of Estonian art. In 2008, the museum received the European Museum of the Year Award – considered one of the most prestigious in Europe.

Evening free: Dinner on our own.

Wednesday, September 9

Morning walking tour of Old Town, including Town Hall Square; Toompea Castle; Dominican Monastery, and Alexander Nevsky Cathedral – a magnificent example of a Russian Revival cupola cathedral. Along the way, a guided tour of the Niguliste Museum, with its collection of medieval and early modern ecclesiastical art. (The best-known work in the museum is the painting "Danse Macabre" from the workshop of Bernt Notke, a master from Lübeck). Break for lunch on our own. Afternoon free for last minute shopping or exploring Tallin on our own before a closing meeting and festive dinner (included).

Thursday, September 10

Depart for U.S.

Accommodations

The Kempinski Hotel Cathedral Square

A truly distinctive hotel located on Cathedral Square, The Kempinski Hotel Cathedral Square features breathtaking views over the UNESCO-listed Old Town. Major tourist attractions, such as the Presidential Palace and the main shopping street, Gedimino Boulevard (home to many designer boutiques), and picturesque galleries, are all within walking distance of the hotel.

The Grand Palace

Originally built in 1877 as the Central Bank of Latvia and converted into a boutique 5-star hotel in 2000, the Grand Palace Riga now offers a setting that encompasses luxury, warmth, and comfort. Voted as Latvia's Leading Hotel, it is located in the heart of the sight-seeing district of Riga Old Town.

Hotel Telegraaf

This elegant 19th-century building with a stunning façade is perfectly placed in the heart of Tallinn's historical Old Town. Formerly a telephone exchange, Hotel Telegraaf has been masterfully converted to a boutique hotel and provides the highest standards of accommodations and cuisine.
